

WELCOME AMERICAN ROAD READERS!

TO TAKE A ROAD TRIP TO OREGON

CLICK HERE TO VISIT HISTORIC SILVERTON – Nestled in the Willamette Valley, refresh yourself with a tour of The Oregon Garden, a walk-through Silver Falls State Park, an exploration of Silverton’s shops and restaurants, or a visit to nearby farms and vineyards.

CLICK HERE TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THE DALLES – Located along the shores of the Columbia and near the Deschutes River, this is the the eastern gateway to the Columbia Gorge National Scenic Area. Pulled off the highway and explored The Dalles - a perfectly preserved downtown, incredible vistas from Sorois Park, a fantastic outdoor playground, and super friendly folks.

CLICK HERE TO LEARN MORE ABOUT CORVALLIS – This charming town, home of Oregon State University, is the ideal base camp for touring beautiful boutique wineries, the work of craft brewers or for hiking, biking and shopping. Relax, you are visiting the gorgeous scenery of the heart of the Willamette Valley.

CLICK HERE TO TRAVEL CRATER TO CRATER – La Pine, Oregon is your gateway to the Newberry Country Trail, a land boasting 158 lakes and reservoirs, over 100 campgrounds, and over 240 miles of streams. An 89-mile paved driving tour takes you past a natural world including the Newberry Caldera, the largest volcano in the Cascade Mountains.